DEDICATION

Mr. Grant A. Erickson

The annual staff has taken careful consideration of the qualities necessary in the person to whom the yearbook is dedicated. We feel that Mr. Erickson possesses the favorable qualities of honesty, understanding and administrative ability. His traits of kindness and devotion are admired by both students and people of the community. Through the years, we have come to know him as a good friend and advisor. Therefore, as a token of our esteem and gratitude, we dedicate the 1968 VIKING to Mr. Grant A. Erickson.

MAN OF THE CAMPUS

"Lily, will you please run off a couple of copies of this?"

Mr. E supervises sophomore testing.

Mr. E consults calendar of events with Mrs. McCallum.

REFLECTIONS OF KHS

Our four best years are spent right here
And looking back, we'll shed a tear
Remembering things that in our past
Had seemed so long, but went so fast.
The freshmen look to brighter years
No longer shining senior's shoes
Or climbing trees or singing songs
For upperclassmen righting wrongs.

The sophomore class is on its way
To being the best; or so they say,
But two more years they'll have to go
Before achieving such a goal.

The juniors, now just a year away
Are learning tricks which they will play
On freshmen coming up next year
With trembling knees and awesome fear.

The seniors look to higher goals,
A rising sun of work or school,
Not only do they look ahead
To seek their future out; instead
They look at what they've done
These past four years that now are gone,
And see the joys and sorrows and fears
That made for them, their best four years.

REFLECTIONS OF CLASSES . . . THEN AND NOW

At the turn of the century, classrooms were small and included six or more grades in the same room. Students often amused themselves by drawing on their slates and dipping little girls' braids into ink wells.

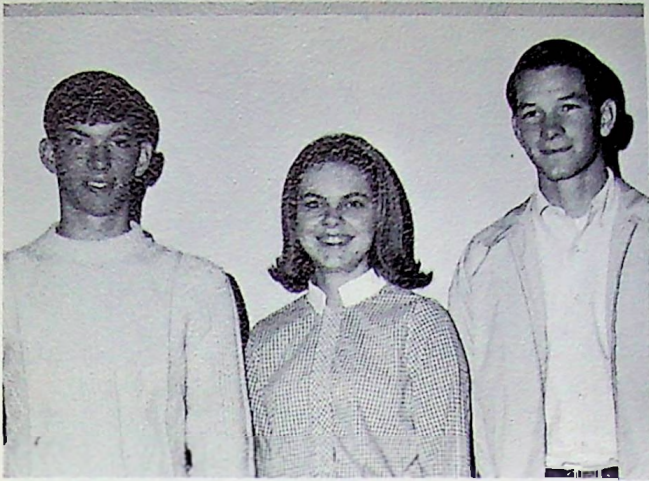

In 1968, students have many of the same characteristics as in those days. School systems, however, have definitely changed. Each change has been an improvement. We believe Kingsburg High School has four fine classes and we can be proud of each for its spirit, attitude and academic achievement.

Class of 1968

The graduating seniors of 1968 have been very active in school activities, both extracurricular and scholastic. The football, tennis, basketball, and swimming teams consisted primarily of seniors. This year's graduates also had a large number of students on C.S.F. and Honor Roll.

On October 20, the senior class sponsored the after game dance, the "Denzil Von Johnson Blast". The senior announcements were ordered on November 30. On December 5, the graduates' caps and gowns were ordered. Officers met on January 31 to choose the style and color of the baccalaureate programs. At the end of the year the seniors went to a senior grad party at Disneyland.

REFLECTIONS OF SPORTS . . . THEN AND NOW

A warm summer day in 1915 often brought crowds of people to the beach. Clad in swimsuits, these carefree folks were ready to enjoy swimming, boating, sunning or a rousing volleyball game.

At Kingsburg High School, we participate in a variety of sports. Every season brings at least two new ones. There is a sport and a season suited to most everyone's taste. Each team is supervised by fine coaches. Both participants and spectators learn good sportsmanship and fair play along with the skills and fun of K.H.S. sports.

1967 brought to Kingsburg High School its first varsity football championship in nine years. The team started off the season with a tie against the Lindsay High School Cardinals. Since it was the first game, the team played below average and really had to fight to salvage the tie. Its second game was much improved as it knocked off a good Riverdale squad. The next Friday night the team rolled over the outmanned and outplayed Parlier Panthers. Arch-rival Selma came to town and handed the Vikings their first loss of the season. Both teams played well, but the Bears proved to be too fast for the Vikings to contain.

The following week the Vikings traveled to Orosi to take on the highly touted Cardinals. The game ended in a tie and proved to be the only game Orosi did not win during the season. The league season started then as Coalinga squeaked out a close game. The next week the Vikings came up with a big win over Woodlake which started a four game winning streak. Dinuba, Fowler, and Exeter were to fall before the powerful Vikings. The league championship as well as a division play-off game were the fruits of the big victory over the Exeter Monarchs on their home field.

Next was the division play-offs. Kingsburg was picked to play the number two team in the valley, the Chowchilla Redskins. The game was played in Madera. The Vikings played their finest game of the season, and except for a few bad breaks, might have won the game. The Vikings held a surprising 7-6 half time lead, but the second half they just couldn't stop the powerful Chowchilla offense. The final score was Chowchilla 32, Kingsburg 13.

New head coach "Dub" Doshier brought some new ideas to Kingsburg this year. One of the best known was the system of choosing a player-of-the-week and the most inspirational player each week. Everyone on the team worked hard to receive these honors.

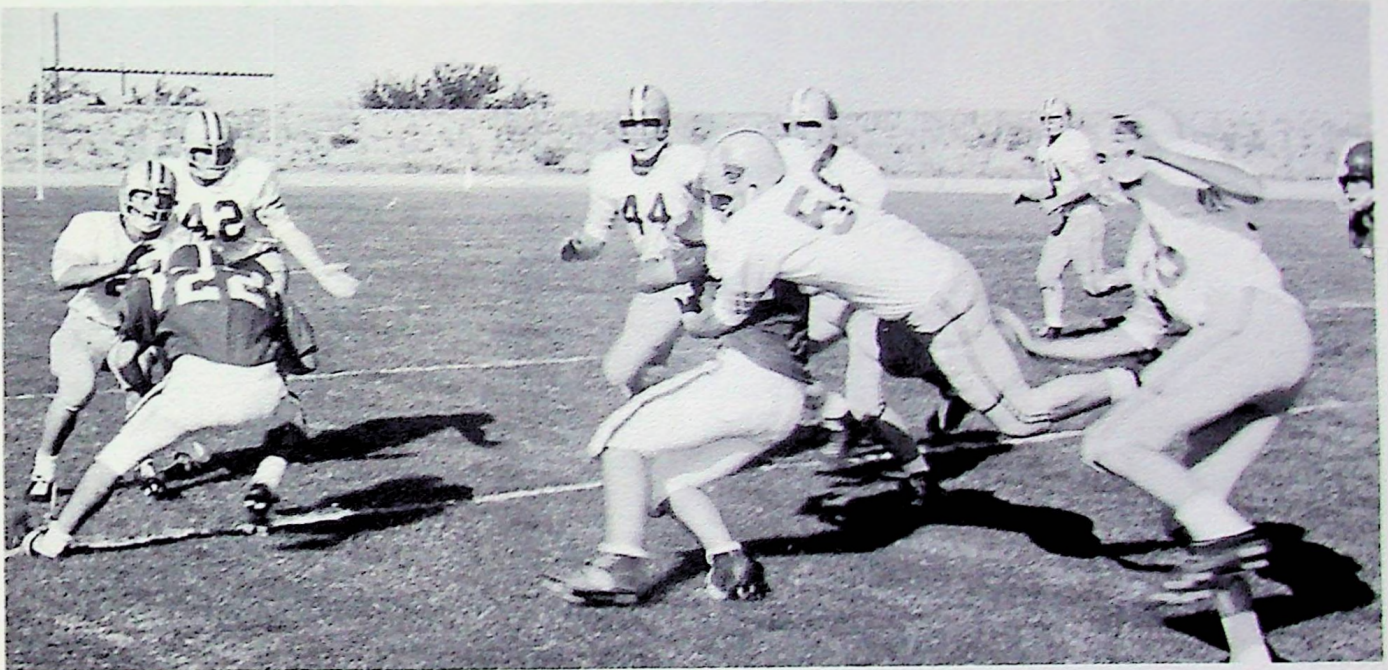

Coach Doshier was chosen West Sequoia League "Coach of the Year" as well as being honored as the coach of the Fresno County All-Star team. Assistant coach, Gary Paulsen, also coached in the annual Fresno classic. Coach Paulsen worked with the backfields of this year's team. He is a former Viking football star quarterback.

Four Vikings were chosen to the West Sequoia League All-Star team. Offensively, guard, Keith Erickson; tackle, Mark Pinheiro; and tight end, Mike Satterstrom. Making the all-league defensive team were linebacker, George Roehlk; and tackle, Mike Satterstrom. Selected for the Fresno County All-Star team were Pinheiro, Satterstrom, and flanker, Bobby Kataoka.

Chosen as the Most Valuable Viking this year was Mike Satterstrom, Most Improved Viking was Craig Westlund, the Best Back was George Roehlk, and the Best Lineman was Mark Pinheiro.

Norsemen Football

The 1967 Norsemen football team, under Head Coach Sam Crandell and Assistant Coach John Jacobo had a disappointing season. They lost eight games and tied two. Their first game, against the Lindsay High School Cardinals, ended in a tie; as did their third game with Parlier. Seven straight losses followed. However the success of any team cannot be measured by the number of wins or losses that it acquires during a season.

Lack of size and experience were the team's biggest problems. Improvement was noticeable and much valuable experience was gained. Individual effort was good, but the team just didn't get going as well as it should.

Co-captains for this year's Norsemen were Stan Huddleston and Ray Martin. Noel Remick was chosen the Most Valuable Norseman. Omar Villanueva was chosen as the team's Most Improved Player.

We're the Champs

West Sequoia League Champions for the first time in eleven years was the claim of the 1967-68 Viking basketball team. Not only did the team win the league championship, they also stopped Reedley's domination of the Kingsburg Lions Tournament by defeating Reedley and going on to win the tournament title. This year's team won 22 games while losing only 3 games and were rated as high as the number two team in the valley. At valley play-off time, Kingsburg had to play three games in five days and lost to Arvin in the quarter finals. The Vikings were coached by new mentor Don Heselwood.

The team was led by Mike Johnson, Richard Delgado, Fidel Olmos, Eugene Holt, and Doug Ohlstrom. Also on the squad were Larry Esajian, Greg Bortolussi, Greg Parlier, Don McCarthy, and Robert Togioka. Mike Johnson led the team in scoring with 398 points, followed closely by Richard Delgado with 370 points. Junior pivot man Doug Ohlstrom led the team in rebounds with 336 followed by Johnson with 325. Eugene Holt did an outstanding job rebounding and Fidel Olmos played a tremendous defensive game keeping many of the valley's top scoring guards to very few points.

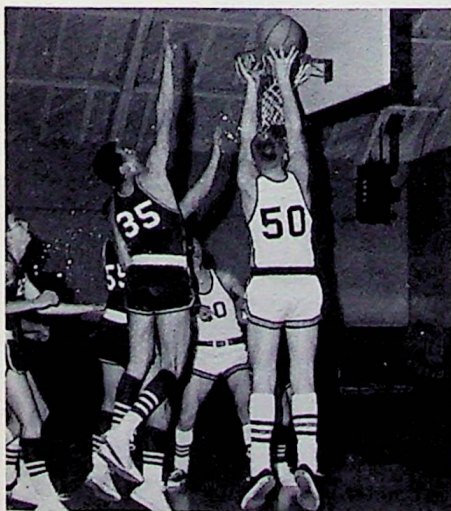

One of the highlights of this year's season was the team's performance in the Fresno Bee Tournament during Christmas vacation. They finished third out of sixteen teams entered and their only loss was a one point overtime decision to Bullard, the eventual champion. This year's team averaged 65 points per game to their opponent's 49 points. In league play, after losing their first league game to Dinuba, they went on to win eleven straight and the championship. Richard Delgado and Mike Johnson were selected as all-tournament players in both the Kingsburg Lions Tourney and the Fresno Bee Tourney.

Norsemen

The 1968 Frosh-Soph basketball team had a long, winless season. This year's coach was John Jacobo. The starting five included Keith Matsuoka, Jack Wright, Doug Dillon, Mike Jensen, and Randy Swearingen. They improved steadily through the tough season and gave opponents exciting games. With the help of this year's freshmen, next year should show an improved record.

The Team

The Viking Wrestling Team, under the able coaching of Mr. Sam Crandell and Mr. John Seaman, had a good season. However, the Vikings were dethroned from the League Championship by the powerful and well-balanced Exeter Monarchs for the first time in three years.

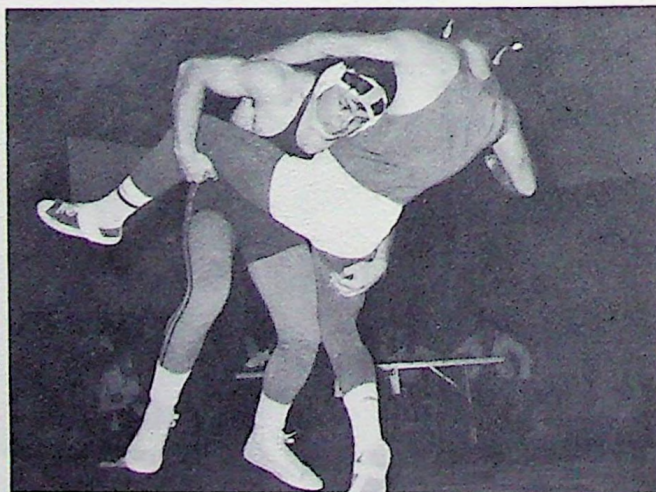

In the Redwood Invitational Tournament, co-captains Dana McManus and Mark Pinheiro placed 2nd and 4th in their respective weight classes. Two weeks later in the Fresno State Invitational Tournament McManus finished first in the 145 lb. class and was voted the outstanding wrestler of the tournament. Pinheiro finished fifth in the 191 lb. class.

Kingsburg High School hosted the annual West Sequoia League Tournament on February 10, 1968, with Exeter winning the title and Kingsburg taking a close second. Individually, Terry Price at 120 lbs., Dana McManus at 145 lbs., Oliver Crandell at 185 lbs., and Mark Pinheiro at 191 lbs. were first place winners. Doug Burris at 138 lbs., John Perry at 165 lbs., and Sibby Vasquez at unlimited finished second in the league, thus bringing to a close the 1968 wrestling season.

With a good Junior Varsity team this year and many Varsity members returning, next year should bring another Championship to the matmen of K.H.S.

Hang on Doug.

The 1968 Viking Baseball team was out to keep up with the championship football and basketball teams. Under new coach Gary Paulsen, 18 prospects turned out for the team. Only six of these were returning lettermen from last year's squad.

The biggest problem for this year's team was pitching. Number one pitcher, Chris McNabb had a broken arm and was unable to play most of the season.

The top hitter from last year's squad was Mike Rodriguez. He was back along with other good hitting and fielding lettermen and players up from last year's J.V. team. Although the team had a tough schedule, they lived up to their potential.

Coach Hays reported that prospects for the season looked very good. Several returning veterans from last year's successful freshmen team provided a team nucleus, and with the addition of a few talented freshmen, the season was very successful.

Pitching, however, was the big question mark and made the difference for the team this year.

Golf

Twenty boys were on hand for the first tryouts for golf this year and a strong team was in store for Don Heselwood in his first year of coaching the golf team. Two outstanding lettermen were on hand, Dave Bolton and Mike Reardon, who gave other teams a good match. Both boys were capable of shooting in the low seventies. Other lettermen turning out were Mike Jensen, Scott Troescher, Mark Bennett, and Steve Crain.

Cross Country 1967

Under the able leadership of coaches Larry DeLong and John Seaman this year's cross country team steadily improved. In league competition the varsity placed third, the frosh-soph team first, and the junior varsity placed first.

At the divisional meet, with fifteen schools participating, the frosh-soph team placed fifth while the freshman team placed first. Abel Herrera and Steve Krivis each qualified for the valley meet by placing sixth and tenth, respectively, at the divisional. This is the first time that Kingsburg has ever had two runners qualify for the valley meet.

This year's top varsity runner was Frank Flores with a best two-mile time of 10:18. Flores and Ken Tehee were co-captains for the team.

Viking Track

The 1967 Viking track team anticipated a league championship. There were approximately forty-five team members out for practice. Many returning lettermen were out looking for medals. High jumper, Jerry Mitchell; runner, Ken Tehee; and weightmen, Mike Satterstrom and Keith Erickson, led the returning seniors. Hoping for a place at the Valley meet in Bakersfield later in the year, were runners Ken Tehee and Alan Wright, and shot-putter Mike Satterstrom.

This year the team was coached by Larry DeLong and John Seaman. Practice this year began the week after football was finished. The team started a weight-lifting program which they stayed on throughout the season.

This year the league meet and five other meets were conducted on the Viking's own track. There were fifteen other meets including the divisional meet at Selma, the valley meet at Bakersfield, and the state meet at Stanford.

Returning to defend last year's 12-0 league championship record were lettermen Dennis Johnson, Keith Inouye, Archie Zakarian, Monte Pruett, Robert Niemi, Jonni Sue Bartel, Linda Nieuwenhuijs, Kathy Swenson, Ginger Comstock, and Carole Nelson.

The Varsity and Junior Varsity netters participated in practice matches with Sanger, Selma, Reedley, Lindsay, and Hanford. The tennis teams were also participants in the Selma Invitational Tournament and the Tulare Tennis Tournament. This was prior to competition in the West Sequoia League in which the netters were in anticipation of capturing the championship. At the end of the season, the Varsity also participated in the Valley Finals at Bakersfield.

The Junior Varsity team, which was also out to defend a 12-0 league championship record from last year, expected to have a fine season.

Swimming

Under the able coaching of Mr. Sam Crandell and Mrs. Karey Olson, the swimming team was hoping for another outstanding season. There were thirty-four people who turned out for the team in January. There were fifteen returning lettermen. The diving team was also expected to have an outstanding season.

A display of perfect form.

REFLECTIONS OF ACTIVITIES . . . THEN AND NOW

A popular entertainment spot among teenagers in the "Roaring Twenties" was a parlor containing a victrola or a player piano. Favorite pastimes of high school students included taffy-pulling, sporting raccoon coats and chemises, and dancing the Charleston.

All of the activities featured at K.H.S. reflect the same spirit of fun that existed in the twenties. But many of our campus clubs perform useful services as well. The objectives of our organizations are to instill in students the qualities of leadership, responsibility, and a variety of interests.

Again, the 1968 Viking staff met as a class under the supervision of Mrs. Carolyn Stevens. The staff began work early, selling ads, taking pictures, and laying out plans the first week of school. New features in this year's book are a special color section and an index. "Reflections of the Way Life Used to Be" is the theme which inspired the cover and division page designs, the photography and the artwork.

We of the yearbook staff have enjoyed publishing the 1968 Viking for Kingsburg High School. The most valuable reward for our sincere efforts and hard work is that everyone enjoys this annual.

The wonderful world of journalism.

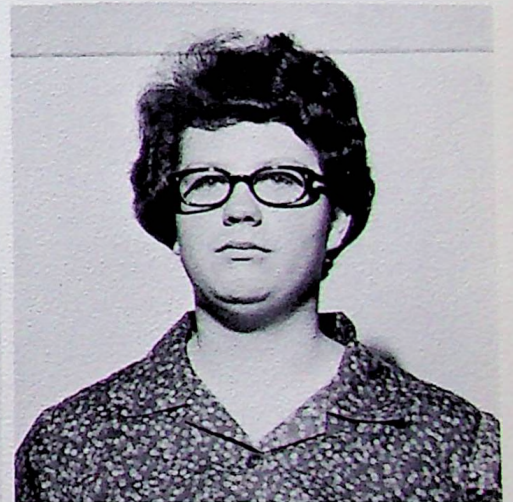

Kingsburg High School's newspaper, the Viking Voice, was published by a very fine staff. This year, fourteen journalism students and their advisor, Mrs. Gail Fletcher, distributed eighteen issues of the Viking Voice, setting an all-time record at K H S. The first edition of the newspaper was printed the first week of school. The staff also initiated the "picture story" for special events such as homecoming and league championships. In order to produce the very best newspaper, several members of the staff attended special instruction sessions during the summer and throughout the year. According to custom, the last issue of the Viking Voice was published by the "cub" staff.

An extremely active organization on campus this year was the Kingsburg chapter of the California Scholarship Federation. This year's C.S.F. was large with 77 members. Leading in membership was the senior class with 27 members. "The Popcorn Ball", the dance sponsored by C.S.F., was held on January 6 with proceeds going for trip expenses. Proceeds from popcorn sales at all home football and basketball games were used for scholarships for deserving seniors who were life members of the club. Qualifications for life membership were four semesters of membership in sophomore, junior, and senior years.

The traditional trip was to San Francisco this year. Fifty members participated. While in the Bay area, the group visited the Berkeley campus of the University of California, went for a cruise on San Francisco Bay, went to a movie, and viewed the play "Charlie's Aunt."

Kingsburg's Pep Club was the most spirited organization in the entire school. The club held meetings on the second and fourth Fridays of each month. Calvin Olson directed Pep Club with the guidance of four advisors, Mrs. Gustafson, Mr. Doshier, Mr. Heselwood, and Mr. Paulsen. The slate of officers held meetings each Thursday preceding pep rallies for the purpose of planning them.

As a group, Pep Club was responsible for selling game ribbons, pins, and balloons. It was also in charge of painting spirit signs and holding spirit contests at pep rallies. And, of course, the Pep Club was the main rooting section for all of K.H.S.'s games.

Pep Squad

This year, the pep squad girls proved themselves champions from the time of their selection to the end of the school term. The cheerleaders and pom-pom girls returned from summer clinics with ribbons and trophies which they later presented to the student body. In October, they participated in statewide competition held at Downey High School in Modesto. At this event, the pom-pom girls placed fourth and the cheerleaders placed sixth.

In December, the pep squad performed at a "49'er" game in San Francisco and later in an exchange rally with Dinuba.

Chris Yano, the Viking mascot, accompanied the cheerleaders and pom-pom girls to all games and to most of the other events. The year was concluded with a clinic conducted for girls trying out for the 1968-69 pep teams.

Tri-Hi-Y

Under the leadership of President Maureen Stucky and advisor Darlene Thornbury, the Kingsburg Tri-Hi-Y started off the year with eight members attending the 17th annual Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y leadership training conference at Camp Gaines. There the club was presented the Club of the Year trophy.

On November 4th Laurel Phinney and Sandy Crain represented the Kingsburg club at the Electoral Conference at Stanford University. In January Laurel went as a delegate to Model Legislature in Sacramento.

Several of the club's activities included visiting the Nutritional Home in Fresno, going on a snow trip to Shaver Lake in January, and going by bus to Disneyland for the annual "Y" Day in March.

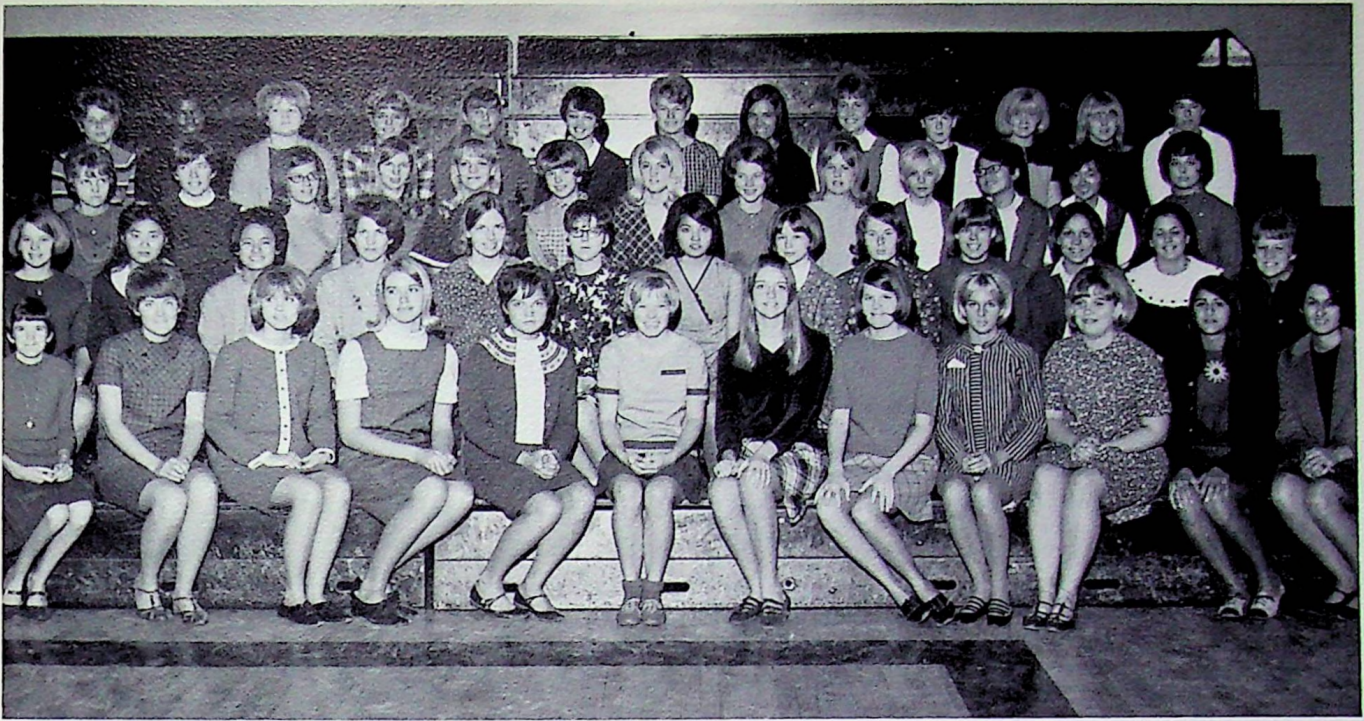

The Kingsburg club had two county officers this year, Janet Sward, co-vice-president, and Gayle Arnst, secretary-treasurer.

A gala Christmas dance was the highlight of Kappa Rho activities this year. The theme was "Happy Holly Hop," and the "Chanteers" provided music for the evening. The club used the money they made from the dance for their scholarship fund, something new which Kappa Rho started last year. Every spring the membership chooses a graduating senior who is genuinely interested in the teaching profession to receive the money for his college education.

Many teachers from special branches of the profession spoke at their meetings. Some of the speakers included were: Mrs.

Bonna Hamstrom, who is a teacher at Lincoln School; Mr. Raymond Holt, who is the speech therapist at KHS; and Mr. Darrel Sorenson, who is a psychology teacher at Reedley College.

In the spring many of the members attended an all day meeting at Fresno State College for all future teacher organizations in the valley. Living up to its purpose of creating more interest and better understanding of the teaching profession, and the students who intend to pursue the profession in the future, Kappa Rho had a great year.

Kappa Rho committee settles on dance theme, "Happy Holly Hop."

Committee meets to discuss dance decorations.

Candy Stripers

This is the seventh year the Candy Stripers have donated their time and service at the Kingsburg District Hospital. They are guided by their advisor, Mrs. Eileen Kolander. Their duties are to change water in the rooms, serve dinner trays, and help in the kitchen. They also try to make the patient as comfortable as possible.

To join, a girl must be sixteen years old. After ten hours of work she receives a name pin, and after twenty-five hours of work she receives a cap.

The first semester officers were Maureen Stucky, Jeanne Kawano, and Alice Morishima.

F.B.L.A.

This fall the Kingsburg Chapter of F.B.L.A. received the national gold-seal award for last year's club participation. Last summer club members made 1,000 souvenir programs for Kingsburg's Swedish Festival. This was done at no profit to the club, with members doing all of the work including typing, writing copy, and silk-screening the covers.

This year's F.B.L.A. activities started off with the club sponsoring a dance, "The Inflation Blast." The forty-three club members also enjoyed a field trip to the Sun Maid Raisin Packing Plant.

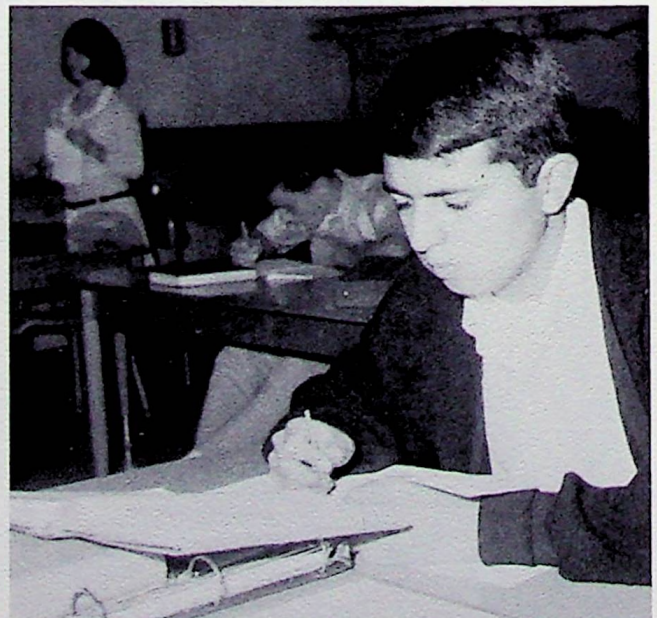

The club had active participation in F.B.L.A. contests. The central section contests were held in Kerman on March 16. State contests took place at the state convention held in Disneyland, April 19-21, where club members and contest participants enjoyed themselves. The national finals will be held in late June in Washington, D.C.

The F.H.A. has made great improvements during the year. Some of the club projects were sponsoring the F.F.A.-F.H.A. dance and providing favors for North Acres Manor. For money raising projects F.H.A. sold cookbooks and candles. Sylvia Ramirez and Janice Westfall represented the chapter at the F.H.A. State Conference in Asilomar.

To end a successful year F.H.A. had a fashion show in Kingsburg, a chapter trip to San Francisco, and a F.F.A.-F.H.A. gym party.

Outstanding Viking Band

Mr. Larry Johnson, Director

The record of wins compiled by the Viking Band during the last few years has earned it recognition as one of the outstanding bands in the valley, in both marching and concert competition. The 1967-68 band proved to be no exception. In both field and street marching, this year's band placed tops among all competing schools.

One of the highlights of this year's many activities was marching in the All Western Band Review in Long Beach, California. Members have consistently won places in County Honor Band and All California State Band as well as receiving superior ratings in solo and ensemble competition. This year's band is one which has truly been an excellent representative for our school.

We try harder.

Radio Club

The amateur radio operators of Kingsburg have had the idea of a high school radio club for a number of years. Until recently, no serious attempt had been made to create such an organization. Through the efforts of the late Harold Strand's family, K.H.S. and the Kingsburg Kiwanis Club, the equipment and location were donated.

Activities of the radio club include classes in code, basic and advanced theory, message handling, many contest operations, club meetings, field days, transmitter hunts, building projects, and on-the-air operation.

Club officers are: president, Robert Niemi; vice-president, Ricky Reynolds; secretary, Larry Esau; treasurer, David Koutney; sergeant-at-arms, Keith Hubbell.

The Astronomy Club, in its first year at K.H.S., was organized so that the astronomy-minded students could be given a chance to study and further their knowledge of outer space. Learning from working in the observatory and practicing setting up and using the telescopes are an important part of their experience.

Club members are assisted in making their own telescopes by Mr. Taylor and Mr. Ewan. Many books are also available to Astronomy Club Members for research, both in the library and in the observatory.

Astronomy Club members were given a programmed astronomy course which gave them background from which to work. They are able to put their knowledge to good use by being student assistants in the evenings at the observatory. Their jobs include setting up and putting away the telescopes, answering questions asked by visitors, and helping the instructors in any way.

To promote good sportsmanship and a spirit of friendly co-operation was the incentive for establishing the Girl's Athletic Association.

This year 150 girls turned out for the first meeting. The club hosted a volleyball playday in October. Teams from Reedley, Sanger, Parlier, Immanuel, Dinuba, and Orosi participated. Kingsburg's "A" and "B" teams captured first place trophies. Their "C" team placed second. The club also played in a basketball playday in January.

"Flower Frolic" was the theme selected for the Spring Day Dance which the club sponsored. Proceeds from this dance are used for an annual scholarship of $100 for a senior girl majoring in Physical Education.

In December Block K co-sponsored a benefit dance for Bill Creighton. It also sponsored another dance in April.

To raise money for their club, members sold programs at the football games. They also sponsored a basketball game in March in which they played against the elementary faculty.

Art services is a class for students that plan to continue art as a career or as a serious hobby. It was organized to fulfill the needs of the school, community and the art students. The class is kept to minimum size, allowing each student to receive personal help and instruction.

In order to enroll in the class, students must show an art ability that is above average, as well as a community service attitude. This year the art service class was taught by Mr. Daniels.

Some of the jobs that were done this year include student parking decals, a cover for the evaluation folder for Kingsburg High School, designs for a Swedish cookbook and wooden plaques for various sports awards, as well as regular posters, banners, and audio visual materials.

The Prom

On May 17, the sheiks and their ladies entered the "Palace of Shalimar," oasis of beauty. The Dinuba Memorial Auditorium was exotically decorated to depict an Arabian monument of beauty, the palace itself.

The banquet which followed the annual Junior-Senior Prom was held at Del Webb's Townhouse in the manner of a true Arabian feast.

Acknowledgments

The 1968 Viking staff wishes to take this opportunity to express appreciation to the many people who contributed toward the production of this yearbook. With their help, we were able to include many additional new features in the annual. These people were instrumental in the "behind-the-scenes" action required for the development of the special color section and the division pages.

For their donations of costumes and props, we would like to thank Mrs. Sophie Barsoom, Mrs. Carol Just, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barsoom, Mr. Pete Quérin, Mr. Dave Ostrom, Mr. Bill Jackson, Mr. Don Jackson, Mr. Forrest Carlstrom, Mrs. Freda Aslan, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Howell, and Mr. Larry Johnson. We would also like to thank Herb's Photo Studio, Frigulti Studio, and Slight Studio for their photographic assistance throughout the year. We are very grateful to the administration and faculty for their cooperation and understanding. To the businessmen of Kingsburg, who purchased advertisements to finance the yearbook, go our deepest thanks. In addition to these local contributors, we wish to thank Mr. Don Kille of Visalia, District Sales Manager for the Walsworth Publishing Company. But our greatest appreciation goes to our advisor, Mrs. Carolyn Stevens, for her many hours of sacrifice and tireless effort, which made the 1968 Viking successful.
